DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-17 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 1, line 6, the phrase "a base plate and a mounting surface" should be changed to - -the base plate and the mounting surface--;

In claim 1, line 9, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 1, line 10, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 4, line 6, the phrase "a base plate and a mounting surface" should be changed to - -the base plate and the mounting surface--;

In claim 4, line 12, the phrase "element to a cover" should be changed to - -section to the cover--;

In claim 4, line 13, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 5, line 6, the phrase "a base plate and a mounting surface" should be changed to - -the base plate and the mounting surface--;

In claim 5, line 13, the phrase "element to a cover" should be changed to - -section to the cover--;

In claim 5, line 14, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claims 6-17, line 1, the phrase "The tamper indicating assembly" should be changed to - -The tamper indicating kit--;

In claim 6, line 1, the phrase "said top element" should be changed to - -said top section--;

Art Unit: 2636

In claim 7, line 1, the phrase "said top element" should be changed to - -said top section--;

In claim 8, line 2, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 10, line 3, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 15, line 1, the phrase "said top element" should be changed to - -said top section--;

In claim 9, line 3, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--;

In claim 16, line 3, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--; and

In claim 17, line 3, the phrase "a cover" should be changed to - -the cover--.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 1, 4, and 5, the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim 12 recites the limitation "said flexible leg portion" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 13 recites the limitation "said flexible leg portion" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bellinghausen in view of Scott.

Regarding claim 1, Bellinghausen discloses a tamper indicating kit for use with a smoke detector having a base plate for mounting to a mounting surface having a ceiling or wall, and the smoke detector also including an openable cover connected to the base plate, the kit including a thin planar adapter flange 12 including a top element being sandwiched between the base plate 18 and the mounting surface, the adapter flange further including a side element 17 extending proximate to the cover (see figure 1), and a means 20 for securing at least a portion of the side element to the cover 25 such that opening the cover produces an irreversible indication of opening or tampering.

Bellinghausen does not disclose the side element 17 extending proximate to a cover outer wall. Scott teaches the use of a side element 1 of a flange extending proximate to a cover outer wall (at 8, see figure 1). It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to include the side element 17 extending proximate to a cover outer wall to the kit of Bellinghausen as taught by Scott for the purpose of effectively mounting the smoke detector.

5. Claims 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bellinghausen in view of Scott as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Munyon.

Regarding claim 2, Bellinghausen in view of Scott discloses all claimed subject matter as set forth above in the rejection of claim 1, but does not disclose the top element and the side element being pivotally connected. Munyon teaches the use of a top element 408 and side element 409 being pivotally connected (fig. 38, 39, and 41). It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to include the top element and the side element being pivotally connected to the kit of Bellinghausen (modified by Scott) as taught by Munyon for the purpose of effectively mounting the smoke detector.

Regarding claim 3, Bellinghausen discloses the top element including an aperture defined therein for passage there through of a fastener (see fig. 1).

6. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bellinghausen in view of Scott as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Makowka.

Regarding claim 9, Bellinghausen in view of Scott discloses all claimed subject matter as set forth above in the rejection of claim 1, but does not disclose the securing means including an adhesive tape. Makowka teaches the use of an adhesive tape 30a in a securing means. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to include an adhesive tape in the securing means to the kit of Bellinghausen (modified by Scott) as taught by Makowka for the purpose of producing an irreversible indication of opening or tampering the cover.

7. Claims 4-8 and 10-17 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Liou San, Taylor, Rice, and VanCleve teach tamper resistant alarm systems.
